

1 DELEGATE HANSON: I don't recall it directly,
2 Mr. Chairman, but I would only say that the one who made
3 up that majority must have been one of the wisest men at
4 the Convention.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Perhaps by the name of Hanson.
6 Delegate Grant.

7 DELEGATE GRANT: That was the comment I was
8 about to make.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: The political action is taken care
10 of in the bill of impeachment. Whether or not the bill
11 is true is something that the entire body has to determine.

12 Are there any further questions of the Committee
13 Chairman?

14 Delegate Malkus.

15 DELEGATE MALKUS: Mr. Chairman, why should
16 not the Senate have some say in the impeachment
17 proceedings?

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Boyer.

19 DELEGATE BOYER: We have considered this and
20 as I have indicated, the theory or the origin of impeach-
21 ment has evolved to us from English parliamentary system
